

Punctuating Direct Speech

1. Circle the missing or incorrect punctuation in this sentence:

jack said “ where does this beanstalk go to?”

2. Put an 'X' next to the sentence that has been punctuated correctly.

Jack's mother said “Will you take the cow to market?

“Hurry back!” his mother shouted after him.

3. Put inverted commas in the correct place in the sentence below.

 ↓ ↓
 A man said, Here are some magic beans

 ↓
 for your cow.

4. Rewrite these sentences putting punctuation the correct places.

jack said I will climb this beanstalk

the giant shouted can I smell the blood of an englishman

5. Change the speech bubble into a sentence with direct speech.

What will you do with the three wishes I have granted?

6. Complete the sentences using direct speech. Make sure they are punctuated correctly.

A fairy appeared and said. . .

.shouted the queen.

.asked the prince.

7. Jacob has written a sentence. Is it correct? Explain your answer.

“A knight shouted, STOP.”
