Paragraphs

The Day my Bedroom Changed!

You wake up one morning, and as you open your eyes, you notice something very peculiar! Your bedroom has completely changed! You are now in a completely different world!

Write a story using descriptive language to explain what happens next. Organise your writing using paragraphs for different ideas.

- Think about the beginning, the middle
 What do you do? How do you feel?
 and the end.
- What does this strange, new world look like?
- What happens next?

Word Bank

interest surprise describe landscape dark peculiar afraid upset creatures happy important brave enough excited unsure

