

Magic Shoes!

You have been given a pair of very special, magic shoes!

- Where did you get these shoes?
- What can these magic shoes do?
- Where might they take you?
- What happens when you put these magic shoes on your feet?

Write a story about the discovery that your shoes are magic. Remember to use varied sentence structures and lengths. You could also add in speech and parenthesis. Try to include expanded noun phrases and make sure your story has a suitable ending.

Extension ideas:

- Create an advert for the new magic shoes
- Create a TV news report about the discovery of these magic shoes
- Write a manual explaining how the magic shoes work. You could draw a diagram to help you.
- Create a non-fiction text about the shoes
