Writing a Recount

Write a diary entry recounting your week.

Use some of the time adverbials from the word bank below to help you.

before long	in the morning	after tea
just then	later in the day	in the evening
afterwards	when it was lunchtime	during the day

Features often included in recounts:

- an introductory paragraph setting the scene: who, what, where, when
- each paragraph recounts a different event
- a closing statement : a summary of the week or looking forward to next week
- past tense verbs: wrote, walked
- time conjunctions: then, next, after, meanwhile, eventually, later
- first person: I, we
- events recounted in the order they occurred

© Classroom Secrets Limited 2020

Visit kids.classroomsecrets.co.uk for online games to support learning.
Join our Group: Coronavirus Home Learning Support for Teachers and Parents