in the Grand Hall

14th May 12:30 – 3:30

On the anniversary of Mary's death, we will remember all that she did for Britain.

In the Crimean War, Mary helped Britain's sick and injured soldiers. During these hard times, she gave out food and water along with clothes and blankets. She was called 'Mother Seacole' by the soldiers.

Mary was a very kind and caring woman and we hope to share our love for her with you.

VISIT

Come and see our special exhibition while you are here. Learn all about The British Hotel that Mary opened to look after the soldiers. Take a look at the replica we have built to get a better idea of what it was like.

REMEMBER

Take a look at the artwork, stories, news reports and poems about Mary. She was loved by many people as she was so caring and kind.

EAT

Try some stew and rice pudding, just like the food Mary served to the soldiers.

DONATE

Help us to raise money for the British Army.
