Thursday – Personification

Personification is when human characteristics are given to animals, plants or objects. It is used when writing descriptions.

| Use verbs from the word bank below to help you personify a tree. Write your sentences below. For example: The branches bowed downwards. You could write individual sentences or you could weave your sentences into a wonderfully descriptive paragraph. | | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| Vanha wand hamilu | | | | | |

Verbs word bank:

| waved | bowed | stood | crept | gazed |
|---------|----------|---------|----------|--------|
| blinked | shivered | towered | wriggled | choked |
| opened | shook | grasped | danced | sighed |